

Quarterly Strategic Teaming Alliance Roundtables hosted by regional PTACs

in alliance with

Northrop Grumman Corporation

PLEASE JOIN US: September 15, 2022, at 8:00 a.m. (Mountain Standard Time) for the third in a series of VIRTUAL STAR roundtables designed to assist small businesses with navigating and benefiting from doing business with the federal government and large federal contractors (often referred to as Primes)! Connect with panelists from a variety of large and small businesses currently successfully performing as prime and subcontractors. Learn helpful tips to assist your company in achieving its government contracting goals.

This is a series of events and new panelists will provide unique information at each roundtable!

What: The Strategic Teaming Alliance Roundtable is a resource for small businesses to learn how to team up and/or bid on government contracts available on or near the missile wing Air Force bases and beyond.

When: 8 am MST, the third month of each quarter on the third Thursday. Future date: December 15 2022.

Who: September 15, 2022 ~ Representatives from Northrop Grumman Corporation, Honeywell, and 4M Research will showcase large federal contractors and small businesses currently doing business with either Northrop or subcontractors. Also joining the September STAR will be Jayce Blood, Director of Business Operations/Small Business Specialist at Malmstrom AFB.

WHY SHOULD YOU ATTEND?

- Each STAR panel is unique and offers new presenters and perspectives
- Meet new large and small contractors and learn how to connect
- Learn about new opportunities nationally and on or near missile wing Air Force bases - (Cheyenne, FE Warren, Malmstrom and Minot)
- Gain insight and information about the importance of registering with the large contractors, SAM.gov, and others to help you get noticed and propel your contracting opportunities.
- Find out about free resources to help you on your journey

This event is hosted by the Montana PTAC and is open to any business including but not limited to those in Wyoming, Nebraska, Colorado, and Montana. The goal of the alliance is to provide updates and guidance of federal contracting opportunities and resources in the region. Businesses do not have to be current clients of a PTAC, and attending this event does not obligate small businesses to work with a PTAC or any specific PTAC.
